St. Marys River Celebration cleanup is March 19

CALLAHAN, Fla., Feb. 9, 2005 — Registration is under way for the 2005 St. Marys River Celebration, which will be held on Saturday, March 19, in Nassau and Baker counties in Florida and Camden and Charlton counties in Georgia.

The Celebration is a one-day volunteer cleanup of the St. Marys River. Over the past eight years, more than 4,950 volunteers have removed more than 366,000 pounds of trash from the river and tributaries. Last year's cleanup posted the second-best participation and trash collection totals in the St. Marys River Celebration's history.

The cleanup takes place from 8 a.m. until noon. Volunteers will receive a St. Marys River Celebration T-shirt and a celebration lunch at White Oak Plantation between 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Tickets will be distributed to cleanup volunteers and are required to gain entry to White Oak.
